

The UK OT Student Conference is aimed at building links among Overseas Territory students currently based in the UK. Students will attend from a broad range of disciplines: environmental and biological sciences, engineering, law and arts, learning from shared experiences.

The conference will evaluate issues surrounding sustainable development, helping students to gain experiences, learn new ideas and make contacts that will be valuable for their future career.

Your role in the conference

The morning of the conference will consist of a series of short talks on sustainable futures, with case studies from the OTs, relevant to students.

Workshops & networking

The afternoon will provide attendees the opportunity to express their own views relating to what can be learned from the past experiences of the various OTs, in addition to what the future may hold and what can be done to shape it.

Cost

This is a free event; lunch, tea and coffee will be provided.

But places are limited. To secure your place, register at : <http://jncc.defra.gov.uk/page-7077>

Or scan the QR code:

Sunday 29th November 2015, University College London