

4th UK Biodiversity Indicators Forum

1000-1550, 16 October 2006, Room LG3, 3-8 Whitehall Place, London

Objectives of the day:

- Awareness raising, partnership building, development of common understanding and co-ordination of UK biodiversity indicators work.
- Clarification of the roles and responsibilities for UK CBD implementation and measurement of progress towards the 2010 biodiversity targets (global and European)
- Promotion of co-ordinated action on indicators and measuring the 2010 target

Agenda

	Coffee and Tea available		1000
1	Welcome / Domestic / Introduction to purpose of the day	Martin Brasher, Defra	1030
2	Outcome from CBD COP8 - global indicators and the 2010 targets	Andrew Stott, Defra	1035
3	The Global Biodiversity Indicators Partnership	Neville Ash, WCMC	1055
4	Developments in Europe - Biodiversity Communication, structural / sustainable development indicators and the 'biodiversity index'	Anne Teller DG Environment, European Commission	1115
5	Developments in Europe - Progress with SEBI2010	James Williams, JNCC	1135
6	Discussion of European and global indicators and reporting – implications for ongoing UK work (panel session)		1150
	Lunch		1300
7	Experience of applying the CBD/EU indicator framework in Europe	Wouter van Reeth, INBO, Flanders	1400
8	Developing the UK indicators	Andrew Stott, Defra	1420
9	Discussion of roles and responsibilities for taking forward UK indicators and relationship with other country / sector indicator initiatives and reporting		1440
10	Chair's conclusions	Martin Brasher, Defra	1540

Close 1550