

Pigeon

Pigeon

Columba livia

Impacts

- Urban and rural areas are their main impact
- They impact on buildings with their droppings
- They inhabit derelict buildings
- Where there is a lot of human activity, then Pigeons are seen in abundance. For example at any school on the island when it is break or lunch time
- They also eat vegetation, including Acacia "cashia" seeds and any other hard seeds, and these are spread in their droppings

Photo: Emma Bennett

Photo: Emma Bennett

Actions

- Trap them in localised areas
- Don't feed them

Damage done by Pigeons to a car
Photo: pestcontrolrx.com

Damage done by Pigeons to a derelict building
Photo: rpcwildlife.co.uk