LIFE 2015 Call

TRADITIONAL PROJECTS

Nature & Biodiversity

Important aspects to consider when preparing a LIFE proposal

8/6/2015

Anita Fassio
EASME

→ EU added value:

- Replicability and Transferability: obligation to include activities (examples in Guidelines)
- Conservation benefit/impact of the project must be substantial
- Must contain Concrete Conservation Actions (CCA) at least 25% of the LIFE project's budget. Excel table to upload
- Clear link between threats and actions
- Actions: less is often better. Actions and sub-actions should not be confused with deliverables

- National/Regional context must be well explained
 - The maximum score (10) under AW4 'Contribution to the project topics' will be awarded only to proposals that clearly and fully comply with one or maximum 2 project topics

Make applicants READ the application guidelines AND the evaluation guidelines
